

WATER WORKS BONDS

Views Expressed by Well Known Men of Newark

SUPT. VEACH MAKES A STATEMENT

Second Installment of Interviews on the Action Recently Taken by the Officials of This City in Selling Bonds.

The Advocate yesterday published interviews with a number of taxpayers of the city relative to the private sale of $300,000 worth of water works bonds by the city officials for the purpose of erecting and maintaining a new water system in Newark. The second installment of interviews appears below, together with a signed statement from William Allen Veach. In this statement Mr. Veach says that no representative of his company offered money to anybody for the purpose of making a false sale of bonds and in this same statement Mr. Veach outlines the position his company takes in the matter.

S. E. Rhoads.

I think the Mayor, Solicitor and City Auditor acted in the interest of the people and they deserve great credit for their course in selling the bonds. Since the people voted for new water works, I want to see new works built. I don't favor the purchase of the old plant under any circumstances, and at any price whatever. As to the danger of having two water plants in the city, let the water company decide for itself whether it will continue in business after the municipal plant is built and put in operation.

Dr. C. A. Hatch.

I believe the officials did the right thing in selling the bonds, for the people voted to build new works. As to tearing up the streets to construct a new plant, they would have to be torn up more or less in enlarging and improving the old one, since its principal mains are altogether too small.

Joseph T. Sprague.

In view of the present and prospective growth of the city and the vote of the people in the spring of 1903, I would consider it the best thing to construct new water works without reference to the old plant, unless the old plant could be purchased at a price that would be advantageous to the city, and we could obtain a perfectly clear title to it. I take it that the sale of the bonds was made with honest motives and for the purpose of securing a new plant in accordance with the vote of the people. Whatever technical irregularity there was in the transaction should be overlooked in view of the apparently critical situation in which the city was placed by the action of the Water Works company.

Jacob Ankele.

This talk of buying the old water works is like buying a small boy a pair of boots and then giving him the same pair when he gets married twenty years later. I won't say the old water works is worn out, but I do say it is too old for our purposes, and if they want to sell their plant to the city, they ought to have put a price on it long ago. That's my idea of the way business should be done.

N. C. Sherbourne.

Since the people voted $300,000 to build new water works, the proper thing was to sell the bonds and proceed to business. Nobody ought to stand in the way of such action on any petty technical grounds.

Earl W. Murphy.

I think the proper thing was to sell the bonds so the will of the people could be carried out. Something had to be done, and I fully indorse the action of the officials and believe it will be sustained by the people.

George W. Horton.

I am in favor of new water works, and I believe the mayor and other officials acted for the good of the city in selling the bonds in the manner they did. The injunction was really brought in my opinion, by the Water Works company using Vadekin's name, and I am not a bit sorry to see something done to secure the new works for which the people voted. The water rates of this company are at least three times as high as they ought to be, and it is time for the people of Newark to be free from their chafes. The milk in the cocoanut, in my opinion, in this issue, is not the city's $300,000 bonds, but the bonds of a certain other corporation.

Edward Haughey.

The action of the city officials in selling the bonds was a very proper piece of strategy in order to carry out the will of the people and avoid all annoyance on the part of the Water Works company. If we could buy the old plant low enough and get a clear title to it, it might be well enough to negotiate with the Water Works company; but why in Sam Hill don't they name their price if they want to sell.

Will Broome.

The sale of the bonds is the best piece of work I have seen for many a day. Things were in such a shape that the city had to do something or make a complete laydown to the Water Works company, and I am glad the officials had the nerve to act as they did in the interest of the people.

J. M. Jekes.

I am in favor of buying the old plant, and I believe the time has come when it can be bought at a reasonable price (Continued on page 4.)

WHITELAW REID

Will Succeed Mr. Choate as Ambassador

ROCKHILL GOES TO CHINA

Who Will Succeed Judge Wing Former Newark Man is Not Yet Known.

Washington, Dec. 28.—It is announced that Whitelaw Reid, proprietor of the New York Tribune, will succeed Joseph H. Choate as ambassador to Great Britain. Mr. Choate, it is said, wishes to return to New York to resume the practice of law. Mr. Reid was born in 1837 in Xenia, O., and was educated at Miami university, Ohio. In 1881 Mr. Reid married Miss Elizabeth Mills, daughter of Daniel O. Mills of this city. He twice declined the diplomatic mission to Germany, offered to him by Presidents Hayes and Harrison.

W. R. Rockhill, chief of the bureau of American republics and a friend of the president, will succeed Edwin H. Conger as minister to China. Influence is being exerted to have Mr. Conger transferred to some good place, and he is being considered for ambassador to Mexico in place of Powell Clayton, who some months ago sent in his resignation, to take effect at the pleasure of the president.

Attorney General Moody discussed with the president several appointments in his department. One of these was that of a successor to Francis J. Wing, United States district judge for the northern district of Ohio, whose resignation has been received and accepted. No explanation is obtainable here of Judge Wing's resignation. Judge Wing was appointed to his present position on Jan. 23, 1901, at the suggestion of the late Senator Hanna.

Ambassador Porter to Retire.

New York, Dec. 28.—It has been definitely decided that General Horace Porter of New York shall retire as ambassador to France, and he will have his resignation in the hands of President Roosevelt before the inauguration. This announcement was received by the Republican state leaders: "General Porter's successor to Paris will be George Von Lenerke Meyer, the present ambassador to Italy."

INTO OPEN SWITCH

A B. & O. PASSENGER TRAIN RAN AT SHERWOOD, IND., TODAY.

Two Trainmen Will Die—Several Passengers Slightly Hurt—Two Cars Destroyed.

Defiance, O., Dec. 28.—A B. & O. passenger train ran into an open switch at Sherwood, Ind., this morning, hit a local freight and caused a smash up. Engineer James Collins and fireman John Plum were so badly scalded that they will die. The passenger engine turned turtle, the passenger coaches caught fire and two were entirely consumed. Several passengers were slightly injured.

NELSON SUIT

Has Been Dismissed at Frisco—Battling Nelson Says He Was Misinformed.

San Francisco, Dec. 28.—The charge of embezzlement preferred by Battling Nelson, the puglist, against Theodore Murphy, his manager, and Eddie Santy, his sparring partner, was dismissed in the police court. Nelson took the stand and declared the arrests were made while he was laboring under misapprehension of facts, and said that he did not desire to prosecute anybody. The money in the property clerk's hands was then produced. Nelson being given $6,901 and Murphy $2,100, this division being according to the manager's accounts. The cases were then dismissed and the trio left the courtroom.

Collided in a Fog.

New York, Dec. 28.—While a dense fog hung over the river and harbor the ferryboats Bergen and Musconetcong of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western line crashed into each other near the Hoboken ferry slip, and for a few minutes there was a wild panic on both boats. The Bergen had left the New York side and was approaching the Jersey side under reduced speed when the Musconetcong, putting out at full speed, crashed into her.

A BRITISH BOAT

Is Ashore on Fire Island This Afternoon

DESTRUCTION SEEMS SURE

Life Savers Unable to Rescue 33 Men on Board—Sea and Wind High.

Patchogue, L. I., Dec. 28.—The situation of the British steamship Drumelzier ashore on Fire Island beach, is extremely critical and unless the wind and sea settle before night her destruction seems almost certain. Life savers have been unable to rescue the captain and 32 men of the crew. High seas prevent the launching of a life boat. Barter & company agents of the steamer, dispatched another tug to Fire Island this morning in an endeavor to rescue the imperiled crew.

At noon today the stranded steamer was lying broadside on the sea which broke over her and was laboring hard. A wrecking tug is lying a mile away but cannot approach nearer because of the heavy sea. This afternoon a revenue cutter hove in sight and signaled the Drumelzier, asking if help was wanted. The Drumelzier sent up an answering signal, "Yes."

KUROPATKIN WANTS MEN

Tokyo Today Publishes List of 33 Officers Killed and 35 Wounded.

London, Dec. 28.—A dispatch from Hong Kong states that two Japanese cruisers have been sighted off there and that a third cruiser has reached Amoy.

Tokyo, Dec. 28.—Unofficial news received here from Port Arthur today reports that General Stoessel, who is in command of the forces there, has been injured by his horse falling upon him. It is also reported that General Smiloff has been wounded.

Kuropatkin Wants More Men.

Paris, Dec. 28.—A message from St. Petersburg today states that General Kuropatkin has asked for as many reinforcements as it is possible to send him. He has also asked that the capacity of the trans-Siberian railroad be raised from 12 to 18 trains daily.

Japanese Officers Killed or Wounded.

Tokyo, Dec. 28.—The authorities this morning published a list of 33 officers killed and 35 wounded. No localities are given, but it is presumed the casualties occurred at Port Arthur. The naval authorities also publish a list of nine officers and 65 men killed "on special duty." The nature of the duty is not explained but it is surmised another cruiser has been sunk or damaged and that those officers and men lost their lives in this manner.

EIGHT HOLDUPS

In the City of Chicago Last Night. In One Place the Robbers Got $2000.

Chicago, Dec. 28.—Masked robbers bound and caged the watchman and engineer in the Garden City Brewing company's offices this morning and blew the safe getting $2,000 in cash and valuable papers. There were eight holdups last night.

New York, Dec. 28.—Former Attorney-General Finney, commenting upon the recommendation of Commissioner Garfield for a liberal license of corporations says the plan "would be arbitrary and opposed to the spirit of the Constitution and dangerous to the liberties of the people. By such means almost every right of the state can be destroyed, and absolute control of domestic affairs in every state can be assumed and exercised at Washington. This would be imperialism worth re-lying."

BLIZZARD'S GRIP

Extends Over Wide Area of the Country

TRAFFIC IMPEDED BY SNOW

Wires Knocked Down and Railway Business Is at a Standstill at Many Points Today.

Buffalo, Dec. 28.—This city is in the midst of a blizzard of immense proportions today. High winds are blowing and a big storm races. The steamer Massasoit which has been fast on the intake pier a couple of weeks is being pounded to pieces by the waves of the Niagara river.

Chicago, Dec. 28.—In its extent the present storm is the most widespread of any during the last 15 years. Counting the fog as a component part of the storm, it stretches clear from the Rocky mountains to New York and from Winnipeg to New Orleans. Railroad, telegraph and streetcar companies suffered severely throughout the west and northwest. The intense cold and terrific gale that followed close upon the fog coated the wires with ice and later threw poles to the ground, crippling the companies badly. Railroad trains were badly delayed, some of them being 24 hours late. Streetcar traffic in all the cities of the blizzard zone was for hours practically at a standstill.

In the northwest the storm was even more violent than throughout Missouri and Iowa. The heavy snow and the gale worked havoc with the railroads, and some of the passenger trains from the Pacific coast were reported as 24 hours overdue. The storm reached westward from St. Paul until it covered almost the entire northwest, and from the Dakotas, eastern Montana, Wyoming, northern Michigan and Wisconsin the story was the same from all points. The wires were down in all directions, the snow was falling in dense volumes, and, driven by a high northwest gale, was filling the streets and railroad cuts. In the south conditions were somewhat better, the snow in many places being changed to a heavy rainfall, which was preceded by thunder and lightning and followed by high winds. Nashville, Louisville, New Orleans, Montgomery and Memphis all reported exceedingly heavy rains, a rapidly falling thermometer and terrific winds.

The fatalities reported as due to the storm were three men killed. They were: Alexander Steiner of Chicago, a teamster, killed while unloading coal. A coal chute was blown from its fastenings and, striking him on the head, killed him instantly. Thomas Walsh of Chicago, a laborer, struck by a heavy board while entering a new building. Frank Cavanaugh was killed at Muncie, Ind., by a derrick falling on him.

INDIANA OIL FIELDS

Hit Hard by the Blizzard—One Man Killed and Much Damage Has Been Done.

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 28.—The blizzard that struck Indiana caused one death and property loss amounting to hundreds of thousands of dollars. The damage was especially heavy in the oil fields, where derricks were blown down and distilling suspended. Steam and interurban traffic was interfered with. Wires were blown down and communication with many towns cut off. Five hundred oil derricks were blown down near Muncie. Frank Cavanaugh was killed by a derrick falling on him while he was taking shelter from the rain. The derrick loss is estimated at $200,000 in the Muncie field and $50,000 around Portland. Two workmen were injured by the falling of the walls of the Central Chair company's plant, recently burned here. In many parts of Indiana the mercury dropped 20 to 47 degrees.

Became Violently Insane.

Toledo, O., Dec. 28.—William Dehardt, the engineer of the Wheeling and Lake Erie drawbridge, became violently insane today and is locked up. During the past winter when the Wheeling bridge was carried over Dehardt was imprisoned on the draw and was released the next day by his son. He has been gradually getting away since.

Berlin, Dec. 28.—The Land Anzeiger says that the nurse of Grand Duchess Olga has been expelled from Russia because of espionage. She told state secrets and the contents of the czar's personal documents. She is said to be in the pay of a foreign power.

CHADWICK REQUISITION

Has Been Honored by the Governor of New York State

THE SHERIFF GETS A NEW AFFIDAVIT

Pardon Clerk Said It Was All Right But That He First Wanted to Confer With Governor Odell

---Warrant Issued Later.

Albany, N. Y., Dec. 28.—(Bulletin)—Judge Joyce, the state pardon clerk, said this afternoon that he had mailed to Sheriff Barry at New York the requisition papers in the Dr. L. S. Chadwick papers.

Albany, N. Y., Dec. 28.—Sheriff Barry, of Cuyahoga county, made a second visit to the executive chamber today bringing with him the affidavits necessary to secure a warrant of extradition authorizing him to take Dr. Leroy S. Chadwick back to Cleveland to answer to the charge of complicity in forging the name of Andrew Carnegie to the note of $5,000,000 used as security by his wife, Mrs. Cassie Chadwick. On Monday as wired the Advocate, the requisition was denied because of the absence of an affidavit to the effect that Dr. Chadwick was in Cuyahoga county on March 5, 1903, when the crime is alleged to have been committed. Sheriff Barry went on to New York and wired to Cleveland for the necessary affidavit which arrived in New York yesterday. The sheriff came up from New York last night and was met at the Ten Eyck hotel by Judge John T. McDonough, former judge of the Supreme Court in the Philippines, who had been engaged as counsel by the sheriff.

The affidavit sent on by the district attorney from Cleveland is a sworn transcript from the minutes of the grand jury that indicted Dr. Chadwick for complicity in forgery. The witness whose testimony it contains is Iri Reynolds, of the Wade Park bank of Cleveland, who declares that Dr. Chadwick was in Cleveland on March 5, 1903, when the alleged forgery was committed. To strengthen this affidavit, another was made last night by Sheriff Barry.

Those affidavits Sheriff Barry took with him to the executive chamber at 10 o'clock this morning. Judge Joyce, pardon clerk, looked them over and announced that they were satisfactory and the requisition would be honored. He said, however, that he desired to confer with Governor Odell over the telephone before signing the papers, and would mail them to Sheriff Barry at police headquarters in New York. With this understanding Sheriff Barry returned to New York on the 11:24 a. m. train.

SILVER BULLION

Has Been Exhausted Says Superintendent of Philadelphia Mint—Mr. Landis' Suggestion.

Philadelphia, Dec. 28.—John H. Landis, superintendent of the United States mint here announced that the available silver bullion of the country has been exhausted. Unless congress takes prompt action to relieve the situation, he said, commerce will be greatly hampered next year as a result of a $10,000,000 shortage in small silver coins. The prevailing conditions of the country's collateral assets entail wholesale discharges of mint employees, to take effect on Jan. 1, and unless relief is obtained from congress the regular mint force will be cut down to a nominal number within the next few months.

Mr. Landis added: "The government is facing conditions which will compel it either to go into the markets and resume the purchase of silver bullion for coining purposes, or else to coin a portion of its stock of silver dollars into subsidiary silver coins."

Bonnington, Vt., Dec. 28.—Frank Poir, after an altercation at the door of his wife's father's house, drew a revolver and fired two shots at her. The woman was seriously shot. Poir was found dead in front of the residence this morning.

DOUBLE EXECUTION

Two Negroes Convicted in Georgia of Murdering R. G. Story Hanged at Thomson.

Thomson, Ga., Dec. 28.—John Butler and Guy Reed, the two negroes who were convicted of the murder of R. G. Story here 27 days ago, were hanged here. They both took the matter coolly, showing but little fear or nervousness. Just before the black cap was slipped over the head of Butler, with a grin on his face he said to the sheriff, "Boss, I'm ready to skin the cat." The negroes killed Mr. Story, a prominent farmer, because he would not let them off from work one afternoon. A lynching was averted by the quick work of Judge Henry C. Hammond of the supreme court in convening court and giving them a trial. The crime was committed, the criminals tried and hanged within 27 days, probably being the record for prompt administration of justice in this state.

Washington, Dec. 28.—The French mission to Morocco to check the uprising, has failed. The state department was so advised this morning by Consul Phillips at Tangiers. He was directed to remain neutral and in case personal danger seems imminent to inform the American residents of such fact without delay.

CASE ADJOURNED

BY REFEREE ROGERS TILL NEXT
TUESDAY, JAN. 2.

In the Meantime Lingafelter and Sutor
Will Go Over the Bank Books
Together.

The hearing of the proceedings brought by Receiver A. A. Stasel, of the Newark Savings bank, to declare James F. Lingafelter an involuntary bankrupt, was adjourned Tuesday afternoon, after Referee Rogers had spent the entire day in listening to the testimony of expert J. Hope Sutor.

The adjournment was taken in an effort to shorten the hearing, the accounts being very complicated. In the meantime Mr. Lingafelter and Mr. Sutor will go over the books together, and ascertain wherein the former cashier's accounts differ from those of the expert.

Referee Rogers will return next Tuesday, January 2, when the hearing will be resumed.

Granville House Party.

Granville, O., Dec. 28.—Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Hulsizer entertained with a house party over Christmas at their beautiful home on Main street. On Saturday night a Christmas supper was served to the guests after which all were invited to the library, where Santa Claus had placed a beautiful tree loaded with presents. To make the event more merry the door bell rang about 8:30 o'clock and little Harold Hulsizer ushered in Mr. Santa Claus and his wife. They proceeded to unload the tree and every one was remembered with a gift. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Glenn McDevitt of Delaware; Mr. and Mrs. Wagner and children of Brandon; Mrs. Laikin Brandon, Mrs. Mary Shipp, Granville, and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Megaw, Granville.

A FAMILY DINNER

Given by Mrs. Mary Smith at Her Residence in Hebron—Those Who Attended.

Hebron, O., Dec. 28.—Mrs. Mary Smith entertained with a family dinner at her beautiful home in Hebron, in honor of Mrs. Bettie Brubaker and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Long of Luray, Va. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Brubaker, Mrs. J. B. Hershberger, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Lantz, son and daughter, William and Helen, of Newark; Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Smith of Kirkersville; Mr. and Mrs. William Lawyer of Licking; Mrs. Anna Barron and son Stanley, of Winchester, Va. After all the guests had partaken of the elegant dinner, which was prepared by Miss Anna Smith and sister, Blanche, Miss Blanche rendered some very fine music on the piano. The guests all departed with best wishes to Mrs. Smith and son.

OHIO RIVER

Has Reached a Coal Boat Stage Which Results in the Opening of the Coal Mines.

Pittsburg, Pa., Dec. 28.—The Ohio river has reached a coal boat stage, enabling the river coal operators to move 9,000,000 bushels of coal to the south, or nearly all the fuel being held here for southern transportation. The opening of navigation from Morgantown to New Orleans has resulted in orders being given to open a large number of coal mines throughout the Monongahela valley, furnishing employment to 8,000 coal miners who have been idle for many weeks. Before the end of the week it is expected that every river mine in the Pittsburgh district will be in full operation.

Worst in Years.

Lacrosse, Wis., Dec. 28.—Lacrosse and the surrounding country is in the grip of the worst blizzard that has visited this section in years. The storm increased in fury as the day advanced. Streetcar service was blocked and it is with difficulty that the roads are getting passenger trains through. Freight traffic on several roads has been abandoned. Telegraph and telephone communication in all directions is seriously interrupted. The snow is 15 inches on the level.

Work of Vicious Youth.

Stockton, Ala., Dec. 28.—Babe Taylor, 17, got into a difficulty with Burns Hall, a neighbor, and inflicted a cut which may prove fatal. W. B. Catrett, an old and highly respected citizen, who was standing near by, went up to separate the combatants, when Taylor turned on him, cutting his throat from ear to ear. Catrett fell to the ground and expired in a few minutes. Taylor was remanded to jail without bail.

Warehouse Consumed.

Council Bluffs, Ia., Dec. 28.—Fire completely destroyed the four-story warehouse and the entire stock and fixtures of the Fuller & Johnson-Shugart company, causing a loss on the building estimated at $50,000 and on the stock of about $100,000. The insurance is about $75,000. The company carried a large line of farm implements, wagons and buggies, all of which were completely destroyed.

Wabash Train Wrecked.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Dec. 28.—A Wabash passenger train, eastbound, ran into a freight train on a switch three miles west of this city, killing one man and injuring 10 others. Albert M. Ballard of Peru, Ind., engineer of the freight train, was killed.

AMUSEMENTS

"Down on the Farm" will be tonight's offering of Charles Lamb's Murray Comedy company at the Auditorium. Popular prices.

NEXT TUESDAY NIGHT.

There certainly will be something doing at the Auditorium next Tuesday night when Blondell & Fennessy's famous "Katzenjammer Kids" are announced to appear and give their imitable performance. This noted organization has become famous all over the United States and is regarded as the most amusing show that tours the country. It is a veritable festival of fun and a continuous round of merriment from the first rise until the final fall of the curtain. The company includes such well known artists as Baker & Lynn, the premier delineators of juvenile comedy, Wally Clark, the popular German comedian, Robinson Sisters, acrobatic marvels, Major Crique, the smallest comedian before the public, Day & Vestal, novelty act, William Baker monologue comedian, Geo. V. Baker, chic soubrette, and many others equally well known to fame. Seat sale will open Monday morning.

"UNDER SOUTHERN SKIES."

One of the most successful plays to be presented in our city this season is "Under Southern Skies" which will appear at the Auditorium on January 5. Under Southern Skies is one of the largest and most expensive dramatic companies now traveling, as the company numbers 27 people, 23 of whom appear in speaking parts, and every piece of scenery used in the production is carried with the company. Under Southern Skies is now in its fourth season, having had two phenomenally successful seasons in the east. Under Southern Skies is from the pen of Lotie Blair Parker, who also wrote "Way Down East," and it is as true and interesting a picture of the south as that now famous play is of New England.

Mr. Du Souchet's new farce "Who Goes There?" is said to be second only to his "My Friend From India." Who

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes.

The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood. If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work. Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries. It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail. Write to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Goes There will be the Auditorium attraction on January 6 at the Auditorium.

DANIEL SULLY COMING.

Daniel Sully, "the natural actor," has at last secured a worthy successor to his famous play, The Parish Priest. In Our Pastor written for him by Jerrold Shepard Mr. Sully appears as Father Daly, pastor of a struggling little church in Boom City, Idaho. The plot is more strongly dramatic than in any of his previous plays, and the types of rough and ready frontier characters afford a striking contrast to the kindly, humorous, and at times pathetic figure of the priest. Mr. Sully and his company in "Our Pastor" will appear at the Auditorium soon.

YOUNG WOMEN

Thrown Into a Panic by Explosion in Brooklyn Factory—Many Badly Bruised.

New York, Dec. 28.—Engineer Charles Heebe was instantly killed, his assistant, Daniel Ferrier, probably fatally injured, and the lives of hundreds of young women were endangered when the cylinder head of the great power engine in the Chelsea jute mills in Brooklyn blew out. The noise of the explosion threw into a panic the 1,200 young women at work in the building. Many of them were badly bruised and hurt in their efforts to escape.

Sam Sentenced.

Port-Au-Prince, Haiti, Dec. 28.—The court has rendered a judgment in default condemning former President Sam to imprisonment for life at hard labor for the alleged issue of fraudulent bonds. Madame Sam is sentenced to 15 years' imprisonment, and several members of Sam's ministry and other high functionaries have been condemned to terms of imprisonment ranging from five to 15 years. At latest advices President Sam was living in island of St. Thomas, D. W. I.

Complaint of Shippers.

Washington, Dec. 28.—The interstate commerce commission received a complaint from George M. Spiegel and Walter McCabe, Philadelphia lumber shippers, against the Pennsylvania and Chesapeake and Ohio railroad companies, alleging that the defendant roads had imposed unlawful and discriminating rates on the shipments of the complainants.

Want in the Parade.

Washington, Dec. 28.—General Wilson, chairman of the inaugural committee, received a request from Lieutenant C. B. Ballard, in command of Company K, Birmingham (Ala.) rifles, for a place in the inaugural parade. His company desires to attend the ceremonies as the representative of the Third regiment, Alabama National Guard.

Steamer Still Aground.

New York, Dec. 28.—The steamship Drumseir, which went ashore on Fire island bar Sunday night, is still fast aground, with her captain and crew on board still. They refused to be taken ashore by the lifesavers.

Nature as well as necessity mothered the invention of the lathe, the first of the machine tools. It was built originally between two adjacent large trees near which grew a springy sapling. Lathes like it are used today in some of the Asiatic countries.

The number of foreign students, especially of these coming from Russia, has steadily grown, but a careful study of the attendance at the German universities seems to show that Americans have not been adding to this increase.

IN PROSPECTING FOR OIL NEAR BLADENSBURG.

Standard Oil Company Said to be
Leasing Land to Test the New Field.

Mt. Vernon, O., Dec. 28.—The Standard Oil company is leasing land in the southeastern and eastern part of Knox county and it is reported that the company will sink a large number of oil wells.

M. C. Meek of the Standard Oil company was here recently and drove to the field early in the day. It is understood that leases on a strip of land extending from Bladensburg to Greersville were obtained and that the Standard Oil company expects to expend the sum of $50,000 in finding out whether or not there is oil in this section of the country.

Mr. Meeks expects to remain in Knox county several days leasing land, and it is rumored that good prices per acre is being paid by the company for Knox county land.

The interest the Standard Oil company has taken in the eastern part of Knox county probably means the opening up of an oil field. The McKay well near Bladensburg is now good for 600 barrels per day, and the owners of the well, the Logan Gas company, have erected a large tank and are pumping oil daily.

LUNGACHE

pains in chest, bronchitis, and similar signs of a cold on the lungs, can be quickly relieved and cured by

HAMLIN'S WIZARD OIL.

No time should be lost because lung trouble may easily develop into pneumonia or consumption. Hamlin's Wizard Oil, applied to the chest, relieves the pain and inflammation, loosens up the cough and soon cures the disease. "My little girl," writes Rich. W. Thornton, of Ouray, Colo., "suffered more or less with a cold on the lungs since her birth, and finally the trouble became serious. No remedies gave relief, until we tried Hamlin's Wizard Oil, one bottle of which permanently cured her." Price 50c and $1.00. Sold and recommended by

The social part in charge of Misses Mae Rosell, Cor Duncan, Bessie Taafel, Leonardo Evans, Cornelius Miller and Henry Nehls. At prayer meeting at St. Paul's tonight the pastor will speak on "Rules for the New Year."

At the First Church.—The annual Christmas entertainment of the Sunday school at the First Presbyterian church was held at the church on Tuesday night. The church was packed with the little ones, their parents and friends, and a most enjoyable program of exercises was carried out. There was a Christmas tree, which was brilliantly and artistically decorated, and presented a most attractive appearance. The program of exercises consisted of recitations, music, readings etc. At the conclusion of the exercises every child was presented with a box of candy and a small book.

Sunday School Entertainment.—Among the many Sunday school Christmas entertainments given in Newark none was more enjoyable or more successful than the one held at the Fifth street Baptist church Tuesday evening. The entertainment consisted of a choice program of musical and literary exercises. The numbers were all well prepared, and the participants showed the result of careful training. The exercises were given in the presence of a large audience who thoroughly enjoyed the program, and at the close the children were given a Christmas treat, when Mr. W. D. Gilbert, as "Santa Claus," presented each child with a sack of nuts and candies and an orange. The church presented a very beautiful appearance and was beautifully decorated. There were two Christmas trees, beautifully decorated. Mr. E. T. Ruge, the efficient superintendent of the Sunday school, was in charge of the exercises.

John Isaac Luckett, Thrift, Miss.—says three doses of Hamlin's Vizard Oil cured his father of a severe pain in his side and back.

Financial Note.—"I met that rich Mrs. Newcomer today. And I couldn't help thinking—" "Yes."

"—that sometimes when money talks it uses very bad English!"—Puck.

Those Coed Rushes.—They have started hazing, man style, in several of the girls' colleges. Nothing, instead of a cane and tree or a bowl fight, they will likely hold a parol rush or a kimono scrap."—Puck.

ORGAN RECITAL

Will be Given in St. Paul's Lutheran Church by a Famous Musician on January 27.

New York's noted organist, Dr. Min C. Balwin, will give a recital at Columbus January 27. On his last visit there, the Columbus Dispatch said: "Nothing to equal it in anywise was ever heard, and great artists have been here (Columbus). Eyes were moistened and the whole audience was on the verge of sobbing. Dr. Balwin is a musical wonder, a genius without peer in his profession."

His playing on the largest organ in the world at the recent World's Fair created great enthusiasm in musical circles. Arrangements have been made to have Dr. Balwin give a performance at St. Paul's church here, on January 27 the evening following his recital at Columbus. The recital will be under the direction of the Senior League of the church which is a guarantee of its success. No more tickets will be sold than the church can comfortably seat at 25 cents per seat.

GIRL IDENTIFIED

Young Woman Who Jumped From a Third Story Window Was Cecilia Moss of Lancaster, Pa.

Lancaster, Pa., Dec. 28.—The young woman calling herself Cecil Hall, who was killed by plunging from the third-story window of a lodging house in West Forty-sixth street, New York, has been identified as Cecilia Moss, 23, of this city. Her mother, Mrs. Thomas Moss, is unable to give much information as to her recent career. About a year ago the girl went to Washington, D. C. Later she wrote to her mother that she had married Clifford Frazer of that city, whom she said was a clerk in the employ of the government. Some weeks ago she wrote that she and her husband would spend Christmas with Mrs. Moss, but a letter received a few days since said that she would go to New York. The girl stated that she and her husband had adopted the name of Mrs. and Mr. J. Hall, and would go to New York. She directed that letters should be addressed to her under the name of Hall, in care of Mrs. Webb, at the Forty-sixth street address.

Grand Duke Will Not Return.—St. Petersburg, Dec. 28.—It is reported that Grand Duke Sergius will not return to the governor generalship of Moscow until the end of the war. This decision, coupled with the reported resignation of the prefecture of police of Moscow by M. Trepoif, is believed to be due to personal hostility toward both officials, owing to the repressive measures they adopted against the recent demonstration.

In Behalf of Porto Ricans.—Washington, Dec. 28.—President Gompers and Secretary Morrison of the American Federation of Labor called on Secretary Taft and urged the employment of Porto Ricans as far as possible in the construction of the Panama canal. The matter was discussed at some length, and Mr. Gompers will confer on the subject with Governor Winthrop of Porto Rico in New York city next Friday.

Hotel Wrecked.—Grand Forks, N. D., Dec. 28.—A gas machine used for lighting the Columbia hotel here exploded and wrecked the building. A porter who was in the room with the machine was picked up 50 feet away unconscious and probably fatally hurt. James Hamm, a clerk, and Mary Finn, a waitress, were seriously injured. They will recover.

Peace Society.—Pittsburg Pa., Dec. 28.—With the adoption of a constitution the Pittsburg Peace society was formed here. Another meeting will be held on Jan. 10 for the election of officers. Andrew Carnegie has consented to accept the office of honorary president and Senators Penrose and Knox will be honorary vice presidents.

Indictments Returned.—Portland, Ore., Dec. 28.—The federal grand jury indicted S. P. Ormsby, William H. Davis, mayor of Albany, Ore.; C. E. Loomis, Henry E. Young, George Sorenson and John Doe and Richard Doe in connection with the land frauds cases now before the United States court here.

Examined by Russian Vessel.—Las Palmas, Canary Islands, Dec. 28.—The British steamer Bellardine, which sailed from here for Antwerp, reports that a large Russian vessel steamed alongside of her Dec. 22, examined her with the aid of two searchlights, and then withdrew eastward.

Will Resign.—Vienna, Dec. 28.—It is reported that Premier Von Koerber finds his position so difficult that he has decided to resign.

Wing's Successor.—Washington, Dec. 28.—President Roosevelt it is said has decided upon the successor of Judge Wing of Cleveland, for the Federal bench. A rumor is being circulated today that the man to be named is ex-Representative Robert Taylor of Youngstown.

Port Arthur is said to be as strong as six Sebastopols, and it is asserted that the Japanese have accomplished wonders in achieving as much as they have toward its reduction. Its fall in time is believed by correspondents who profess to be well posted to be inevitable. Meanwhile, however, there are great difficulties to be overcome. This is the story which comes from Tokyo, where it is said that sanguine views by the Japanese officers desiring the place are deprecated. The fact that the dispatches of a few days ago announcing that the Japanese had carried all the outer positions of the Russian left wing also mentioned that they were still at that point about five miles from the town indicates that there is still much to be accomplished before it can be taken.

A Few Water Works Queries.

Editor Advocate: I have read and pondered over the editorial statement in last night's American-Tribune that "if the old water works could be purchased at a reasonable figure, it would be better to buy than to build," wherefore I would like to offer a few queries in your columns:

1. In view of the fact which I presume the American-Tribune has not forgotten, that the people by a large majority voted to build a new plant, what would be a "reasonable figure" that is a figure so "reasonable" that the people would be likely to change their vote in order to secure the old works?

2. Will the American-Tribune kindly inform us how long we ought to wait for the Water Works company to bring their plant into the market and name the price for which they are willing to sell it?

3. Or should the great city of Newark make a complete "lay down" and patiently abide the pleasure of the Water Works Company until it is too late to build a new plant before its contract with the Water Works company expires?

4. Will the American-Tribune tell us what is to be done with the $400,000 mortgage now on record against the Water Works plant, in case the city should decide to purchase the same?

5. Numerous other questions.

Salt Rheum

You may call it eczema, tetter or milk crust. But no matter what you call it, this skin disease which comes in patches that burn, itch, discharge a watery matter, dry and crack, owes its existence to the presence of humors in the system.

It will continue to exist, annoy, and perhaps agonize, as long as these humors remain.

It is always radically and permanently cured by which expels all humors, and is positively unequalled for all cutaneous eruptions.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

The New Japanese Code.

Nobushize Hozumi, professor of law in the University of Tokyo, in a paper on the new Japanese code read at the recent international congress of arts and sciences at St. Louis gave an interesting exposition of the manner in which the Japanese have sought to conform their legal system to western ideas. The method employed has been conservative, recognizing for the time being some of the most firmly implanted of the old customs rather than inviting by an attempt to revolutionize everything a reaction which might defeat the purpose of the new code.

About the year 700 a legal code, based upon Chinese moral philosophy, with the cult of ancestor worship and the feudal system, was drawn up and promulgated. This code, with some minor changes, continued in force until the beginning of the nineteenth century. A system of such antiquity naturally had to be reckoned with by the drafters of the new code, though their task was somewhat simplified by the fact that the old laws had never been published. They had been made for the edification of the judges and other officials.

The decree promulgating the new preliminary code after the restoration of the emperor in 1868 followed this tradition in addressing itself to the officials of the empire. When the second code was proclaimed, however, in 1873, the emperor's subjects, as well as his officials, were commanded to obey it, and it was declared that "henceforth every law upon its promulgation shall be posted in conspicuous places for the information of the people," making it evident to the Japanese that their government was to be from that time one of laws and not of men.

The legal condition of women was one of the most complicated problems which confronted the revisionists. Both Buddhism and feudalism had Japanese women kept in a state of dependency. The Chinese doctrine of the three obediences was strictly enforced under the old law—in childhood a female was subject to her father, in youth to her husband, after her husband's death to her sons. A woman had no legal rights which her husband or sons were bound to respect.

In dealing with this question the drafters of the new code made a clean sweep of tradition and established legal rights for women similar to those of the most advanced European nations. Unless otherwise stated in the marriage contract, the property of a woman at the time of her marriage now remains hers. She may also acquire property after marriage and hold it in her own name. There is no distinction between the legal rights of an unmarried woman and a male citizen. A woman now has the same rights as a man in the matter of divorce.

In the maintenance of the "house," a survival of the old clan system, the new code has been less radical. The unit of state in Japan is still the family rather than the individual, but the powers of the head of the house now are practically limited to certain rights connected with ancestor worship and control over the marriage of subordinate members. Any member of the house may own property and on his death leave it to his heirs, where formerly it reverted to the head of the clan. It is believed that in time the "house" will be disintegrated and will join the rest of the medieval customs of Japan in the limbo of the past.

A French authority on European affairs, M. Yves Guyot, predicts in the North American Review that Russia will hereafter encounter hostility in attempting to float war loans. He says that the French investors are now awake to the fact that the Franco-Russian alliance is a one-sided affair, so far as advantage goes, and that Russia has flooded that country with her bonds. Russia's weakness is so manifest, says M. Guyot, that the limit of faith in her future will soon be reached in France. Russia still has an immense gold reserve to fight on, and the end of the war is not likely to come soon because of her financial straits. Yet failure of credit in the house of friends is not a pleasant prospect for a nation situated as Russia is.

Our neighbors on the north seem not at all given to the worship of imported greatness. Some time ago England sent over a titled major general to reorganize the Canadian militia, and the colonial premier plainly told his lordship that he was not wanted. In the late national election the Laurier administration, which snubbed this pretentious individual and caused his recall, gained votes as a result of the incident.

Not alone St. Louis, but the whole country, may be congratulated over the success of the Louisiana Purchase exposition. The labors of the projectors and managers have been appreciated, and millions of people have added to their stock of knowledge in a way that can never be forgotten.

The correspondents in the far east, having nothing better to do, seem to be amusing themselves by inventing new and more tantalizing ways of spelling the names of Manchurian villages.

The New Woman

What She Is Saying, Thinking and Doing

Among the few flashes of light through the darkness of the war in the orient is the work of Mme. Varia Stoessel at Port Arthur. When her husband was ordered to the command of the fortress which he said would be his tomb Mme. Stoessel went too. Civilian at length left; women and children were ordered to go too. The commander's wife remained to help the wounded, sick and suffering common soldiers in the Russian stronghold. Of her own free will she took charge of the ambulance service, directing the disposition of all who were conveyed to the hospitals. She even went to the exposed portions of the forts and tended with her own hands those who were wounded. When she was doing this one day a fragment of shell struck the Port Arthur angel, injuring her in the shoulder. Then she herself had to be lifted tenderly into one of those ambulances whose journeys about the forts she had so often superintended, and she was conveyed, hurt and bleeding, to an army hospital. No misfortune that had overtaken the fortress in all the dreary months of the siege spread through it such grief and gloom as the wounding of Mme. Stoessel. Mme. Stoessel upon her couch in the hospital was told of this despondency and sorrow among the common soldiers. It touched her to the heart, and it also inspired her to do a braver act than any she had yet done. In five days after the shell had struck her shoulder she rose from her bed and caused herself to be dressed in her usual garments and taken from post to post through the fortress. The men, seeing her once more, cheered and wept, while many of them kissed her garments.

A strange study in psychology is that California girl who declares herself a born tomboy. She is uncommonly intelligent and has a high school education, yet naturally detests and loathes the indoor trifles girls are usually trained to, naming particularly "fancy work and piano practice." On the other hand, all the athletic sports and active outdoor employments of boys were the breath of life to her. Swimming and horse breaking were two of her specialties. At length, when seventeen, she cut her hair short, dressed herself as a boy and ran away from home to seek her fortune. She readily found employment as a cabin boy on a steamer, as cowboy and broncho breaker and finally as a mulletier in Mexico. She dressed as a boy because thus she could in safety and without annoyance do the things she craved to do and exploit her ideals, such as they were.

The Japs present the finest example today of willing, thinking and doing. They have the confidence that they can do anything they desire to do, which is at least two-thirds of the battle. Why should not woman in her way follow their example? If a girl must earn her bread, let her stir her thinkers and devise new ways to get a living or to improve on old ways. This she can always do. To the woman who wills and uses her brains success is sure.

Experience, observation, books—these three in this order of importance are our sources of knowledge.

Who is the old woman? Only the woman who cannot learn things—she who settles down like a cat upon a cushion and dozes through the years. One who is always learning can never grow old.

Train yourself to keep your troubles to yourself. Don't pour them out upon acquaintances or strangers. It isn't their fault if you have troubles, and they don't want to hear of yours because they have so many of their own. And, besides, here is a point to consider—if you insist on telling other people of your grievances they will at length come to dislike and shun you, because thereby you prevent them from telling their troubles.

A man asks this question in a newspaper: "Is a woman as able to hang on to a car strap as a tired man returning from business?" What do you think?

A pleasant incident happened lately at an English educational conference. The president of the conference was Rev. H. B. Gray of Bradford college. Mr. Gray said in his address that the British had much to learn from the Americans in regard to coeducation of the sexes. He himself had carefully examined the system in America and found its effects, both moral and social, very gratifying.

At the celebration of the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of Columbia university, New York, there was dedicated to the use of Columbia's girl students for the next century a women's gymnasium that cost $400,000. Its purpose is the physical education of the feminine sex, primarily of teachers of physical culture, but incidentally of all who seek its advantages. It is owing to physical culture that American women have, as is conceded, the most nearly perfect figures of any of their sex.

and in the right way. To tear up the streets of the city in building a new plant would be a menace to the public health. I would use every means at my command to prevent the tearing up of Hudson avenue for a water main. I would consider it a stupendous blunder to have two water works systems in the city. Personally, I am opposed to the municipal ownership of public utilities.

Charles Slane.
The people voted to build a new plant and that is what I want to see done whatever it may cost. In my opinion, the city officials did exactly right in selling the bonds, as they were carrying out the will of the people, as expressed in the spring election of 1902.

John H. Zentmyer.
I would favor buying the old plant, if it could be had right; but not otherwise. Their mains may be in good enough condition, but they are too small in my opinion for a city like Newark, and it would take a good deal of money to enlarge and improve their plant. The streets would be torn up a short time in building a new plant, but we can stand that better than we can stand being at the mercy of the Water Works company. The sale of the bonds was an effort to carry out the vote of the people, and let us proceed to build the new plant unless the Water company wants to sell out very cheap.

Sheriff W. H. Anderson.
There was a full discussion of the question when the people voted to build a new plant in the year 1902. I voted that way, and still believe that is what we ought to do.

Recorder J. W. Rutledge.
I believe most emphatically that the city officials did the right thing in selling the bonds; and that when all the people understand the question from the beginning they will not condemn the officials, as it was the only way in sight to avoid being held up by the Water Works company. There is a $400,000 mortgage on record, Vol. 64, page 344 against the Newark Water company plant, which would have to be discharged by somebody before the city could obtain a clear title to this plant. Therefore, I do not believe that we should enter into any negotiations whatever with the Water Works company. Rather, let us go ahead and build a new plant, according to the vote of the people; one that is up to date and purely sanitary. I do not believe in using water unfiltered, and contaminated with dead horses and other animals always found along creeks and tributaries of such streams as the North Fork of the Licking.

Chas. W. Miller (Meat Merchant).
I am in favor of building new water works, not of purchasing the old ones. That was the way the people voted, and I have no desire to change their vote. I am not a lawyer, but I think the bonds was in accordance with the vote of the people; and I reckon the parties who purchased the bonds knew their business.

Richard Dold.
I believe in the new water works. The officials did exactly right in selling the bonds instead of laying down to the Water Works company. Let this company decide for itself whether we shall have two works or not. The people of Newark knew just what they wanted when they voted for a new plant, and their will should stand; and all officials of the city should seek to carry out the people's wishes, or resign.

Louis Spees.
The Water Works company has taken every advantage of the city it could and have heretofore blocked the sale of its plant; and for the good of the city and the protection of our dwellings and manufacturing plants, we need a much better system than we now have, and since the people voted for a new plant, I favor the building of one. The Water Works company has named no price for its plant, so what's the use of talking about buying it. I haven't studied all the points of the bond sale, but as there seemed no other way to beat the Water Works company, I am willing to let it go at that.

W. W. Alspach.
If the city could buy the old plant and get a perfectly clear title to it for what it is worth, and no more, it might be well enough to purchase it; but since the company does not see fit to name the price, and we don't know whether it wants to sell or not, I see no use in bothering with it. I am not versed in law, so I cannot pass on the legality of the bond sale, but if that was the only way to carry out the vote of the people for new water works, I think the officials were justified in the course they pursued.

Frank Fitzgibbon.
I'll tell you right now, I'm in favor of new water works, and don't want to see any monkeying with the Water Works company. The action of the mayor, city solicitor and city auditor was very commendable, and will be endorsed by the people.

Walter C. Symonds.
I am decidedly and extremely in favor of the city building and owning its own plant without reference to the old company. The city officials did perfectly right in selling the bonds as they did, for even if they could have got a larger premium for them than they did it was a good deal better to lose a few thousand dollars than to be hindered and delayed by injunctions brought by persons who care more for the interests of the Water Works company than they do for the interests of the city.

Ferd A. Crane.
I would favor buying the old plant, if it could be had low enough and a perfectly clear title could be given, but not otherwise. By running an additional main from the hill and circling around the West End the old plant could be made as good as a new one. But if the water works won't give us a low offer, mighty quick, let us proceed to build a new plant and secure the protection from fire that the city needs.

Dr. S. C. Priest.
As long as the water company will not consent to fix a price on its plant, it is foolishness to consider purchasing it. The action of the city officials in selling the bonds is all right.

(To be Continued.)

SUPT. W. A. VEACH

Says That No Money Was Offered Anybody

TELLS COMPANY'S POSITION

Mr. Veach Says the City Would Not be Bound by Appraisalment of Three Men.

(By Wm. Allen Veach.)

Day before yesterday, on my return from a business trip, I learned that Mr. Smythe, the City Solicitor, had made a statement in the papers of the city to the effect that he had been offered by the Water company money to make a false sale of the bonds; that the offer had been made to him and two others. I alone represent the Water company, and I have thought, that my reputation and character here where I have been born and raised, was sufficient refutation of any such charge, but as some may think, in the absence of denial, that there may be something in it, I here and now, expressly deny the truth of the statement, either in substance or form, in whole or in part. If any one has been masquerading under the pretense of representing the Water company in any such way it must be for sinister purposes, either to work to the prejudice of company, or to get a false sale for the benefit of purchasers at some private sale. Indeed, I am informed that Mr. Smythe has on several occasions said that he was offered five hundred dollars, by bond buyers, to force the sale on. Is it not about up to Mr. Smythe to prosecute some of these bribes? I am a citizen of this city and expect to remain so all my life, and do not intend to smirch my reputation by any corrupt or fraudulent practices. I have had no thought of selling the water plant to the city except on its merits. So much for that.

I wish to make a further statement. Some have expressed the idea, that the water company should fix a price, so that, as they say, the people may know whether the city ought to buy. This is a pertinent suggestion, and is worthy of candid consideration. The Water company could easily fix a price. But would it be of any practical use or benefit, to do so? The controversy, made by the opponents of purchasing, is that the water plant is not worth anything. The company thinks it is very valuable. It thinks that the final terms fixed for the price, would enable the city to save a large amount of money, in its work of establishing a municipal plant. But, before either the city or the company would be in position to judge intelligently, of the profit to the city from the purchase, it is a necessity to ascertain the value of the present plant. The company has had an investigation made, has had the original pipes or specimens of them taken up and tested, and they are on exhibition at the company's office. We had all the water plant property investigated and the report has been made. But it is continually said, by the opponents of the purchase, that these things are done by the company, and in its interest, and with the intent of "doing" the city. So the company has made a proposition, that two experts be selected, one by the city and one by the company, to investigate the plant, and report its condition and value to the council. The company has presented this proposition in writing to the council, and by its terms the company has stipulated to be bound by the appraisalment then made, but that he city shall NOT be bound, and may fix a lower price be found, and may fix a lower price as a condition of purchase. The company has thus placed itself in power of the city, and it does this willingly, because it believes that the city would be willing to pay a fair price for the property. Now this offer is made in good faith, and it is the only way or means left to the company to make any progress in its desire to accomplish a sale. This means a sale, with a clear title, with all mortgages and liens released. There is one living mortgage on the plant for $225,000.00. All other mortgages were foreclosed, in this court, when the present company bought the plant at judicial sale. If the above proposition is not a fair one, I am unable to appreciate the quality of fairness, in anything. I cannot conceive of any reason that can be given, why the city should not save money and injury to the streets, and opposition in business, just because the company would get something for its property.

WM. ALLEN VEACH,
Supt. Newark Water Co.

MAN MURDERED

And Robbed in Florida Club Rooms. A Marine Engineer Arrested on Suspicion.

Pensacola, Fla., Dec. 28.—Travis Johnson, a well known citizen, was murdered and robbed in the Arlington club, his head being nearly severed from the body by either a knife or hatchet. John Griffith, a marine engineer, was arrested almost immediately after the assassination and charged with the crime. The victim was at breakfast when he received a telephone message, to return to the club rooms, as some one wanted to see him. He was accompanied into the rooms by Griffith, who was seen a few minutes later leaving the place by a rear entrance. Feeling against the prisoner is intense and a quick trial is demanded. Robbery, probably was the motive for the crime, as nearly $200 was taken from the murdered man.

Liberals Not Satisfied.
St. Petersburg, Dec. 28.—While Emperor Nicholas' manifesto on Russian reforms, coupled with the government note of warning on the same subject, leaves no doubt that it is the firm intention of the emperor to maintain unimpaired the autocratic principle, which no observer has ever imagined he would relinquish, and to yield to the zemstvoist demand for a national legislature, the program of reforms outlined is a broad one, and if it had not been preceded by the agitation of the last few months would probably have been accepted with universal acclaim in Russia as extremely liberal. The extremists, of course, are not satisfied with the reform plan, and many of the moderate liberals are disappointed.

Suit For Stock.
Houston, Tex., Dec. 28.—In the state district court John H. Kirby of Houston entered a suit against Patrick Calhoun of Atlanta, Ga., doing business in New York, for stock in the Houston Oil company of the value of $4,189,800. He alleges that this stock belongs to him, and that Calhoun is illegally withholding it. Garnishment against the receivers of the Houston Oil company and the Kirby Lumber company has been served to recover property held by them and sums owing them by Calhoun. Bond of $425,000 was given to cover the garnishments. The suit involves the operations which terminated in receiverships for the two corporations named.

Sealed bids will be received by the Board of Public Service of the City of Newark, State of Ohio, at the office of said Board until twelve o'clock noon.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 21, 1905, for furnishing the necessary labor and materials for building and erecting a system of water works for furnishing said city, and the inhabitants thereof with water, according to plans and specifications on file in said office. Each bid must contain the full name of every person or company interested in the same, and be accompanied by a bond in the sum of $10,000.00 to the satisfaction of the board, or a certified check on some solvent national bank, as a guaranty that if the bid is accepted, a contract will be entered into and its performance properly secured. Should any bid be rejected such check will be forthwith returned to the bidder, and should any bid be accepted such check will be returned upon the proper execution and securing of the contract. Bidders will be required to use the forms of bid furnished by said board.

Said bids shall be separate for furnishing the labor, and the materials, and shall be separate for each trade or kind of mechanical labor, employment, or business embraced in said improvement.

The right is reserved to reject any and all bids.

By order of the Board of Public Service.

NEWARK'S BIG DEPARTMENT STORE

Bliss College

Newark, Ohio

WILL RE-OPEN FOR BUSINESS ON Monday, January 2, 1905,

At Which Time a Large Number of Students Will be Enrolled.

The Newark branch of the Bliss Business College is already recognized by the people of this community as a strong factor in business training. The school is elegantly and thoroughly equipped to bring about the desired results and if you are ambitious to succeed in the business world, a commercial training such as may be obtained in this institution will help to place you in the foremost ranks of business success. Below we give a synopsis of the course of study:

ACTUAL BUSINESS FROM START TO FINISH.

The "Bliss System" of Actual Business from the Start, of which F. H. Bliss is the author, is taught in this institution, so that students actually learn by doing. Those who enter the Commercial Department will begin buying and selling and actually performing all kinds of business transactions from the first until the last day of the course. Students of this department actually enter into and draw up all kinds of commercial papers used by business men.

BOOKKEEPING.

The Bliss students are taught bookkeeping by actual business from start to finish. It has been proved by experience that students can learn more bookkeeping by this system in six months than can be learned by old theory methods in twelve.

COMMERCIAL ARITHMETIC.

Sailer's Commercial Arithmetic is being used as a text book in this department. The instruction differs widely from that afforded by ordinary schools, both in method of teaching and matter taught. Prominence is given to those points which are of great importance to the business men.

PRACTICAL PENMANSHIP.

Bliss College has as its teachers of Penmanship one of the best men and most successful teachers of writing in America, each student receives one hour drill in penmanship under instruction each morning.

COMMERCIAL PAPERS.

Students actually become a party to, and draw up Checks, Promissory Notes, Drafts, Bills of Sale, Deeds, Mortgages and every kind of commercial paper used by business men.

RAPID CALCULATION.

All students are thoroughly drilled in rapid calculations of all kind, the knowledge obtained by this drill will save him many hours of laborious figuring in the future.

SPELLING.

The text book contains 3500 everyday words, such as are used in ordinary business correspondence.

SHORTHAND.

In the shorthand department we teach a Pitman System, using the Isaac S. Dement version. The teacher devotes her entire time to this section, and all the students' work is carefully graded each day. The Bliss College stenographers are known the state over as highly competent shorthand writers.

BUSINESS LETTER WRITING.

Great stress is given to letter writing in this college, as it is well known that as a rule young people are deficient in this branch.

TYPEWRITING.

The typewriting room is furnished with machines of the best make and supplied with the finest Davis Swivel typewriting chairs, which add much to the comfort of the student. A teacher devotes much of her time to this department, grading all the work as it comes from the machines. Touch typewriting is the method taught.

EVENING SESSION.

An evening session is held three times each week. Those employed during the day can receive the same advantages in this session as in the day school.

A MODEL SCHOOL.

This is truly a model business school in every respect and detail, as the student is surrounded with every convenience for practical business training.

NEW YEAR'S OPENING.

The New Year's opening will occur on Monday, January 2, at which time new classes will be formed in all departments. If you are interested in a business education you should write or call for the beautifully illustrated catalogue. Remember the location,

PUT HIS HAND

OVER MUZZLE OF GUN TO STOP
SHOOTING A HOG.

And the Bullet Went Straight Through.
Little Boy Hurt Near Rocky Fork,
This County.

Rocky Fork, Dec. 28.—Little William Devoll had a hole shot through his hand recently. James Roberts told him he would shoot one of his hogs and Willie put his hand over the muzzle of the gun to prevent his shooting, as he supposed, and the bullet went straight through his hand. The wound is a very painful one. The boy put his hand over the muzzle of the rifle just as Mr. Roberts pulled the trigger. The Christmas tree was quite a success, although the night was very stormy. Several persons got very nice presents, and the program was fine.

Mr. Howard Nethers, wife and son Wayne, spent Christmas at St. Louisville. Charles Kerr has been very sick, but is better at this writing. Clarence Stradley and wife took dinner with his father, Mr. Harvey Stradley Christmas. Leo Boyer took dinner with Ray and Lloyd Boyer on Christmas. Mr. D. L. Price and wife visited Mr. T. W. Boyer and wife Monday. Mrs. Price said she received a much welcomed present for Christmas, it being a photograph of her brother Isaiah Boyer's beautiful residence in Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus visited the school Friday and treated the scholars to their delight.

MOTHER FAINTED

WHEN HER SON PASSED AWAY
WEDNESDAY MORNING.

Mrs. Weakley Was Unconscious Nearly an Hour—Henry Weakley,
Aged 41, Dead.

Henry W. Weakley, 41 years old, died at the home of his mother at 70 Hancock street at 2 o'clock Wednesday morning, after an illness of several months with consumption.

The deceased leaves a mother, two brothers W. F. and J. L., and one sister, J. L. Keller, all of Newark. During the morning Mrs. Nancy Weakley, mother of the deceased, who is now 82 years of age, was led into the room to view the dead body of her son. Her emotion overcame physical endurance and she fell in a dead faint, being unconscious for nearly an hour. Her condition at this time is serious.

The funeral of Henry Weakley will take place from the home at 1 o'clock Thursday, Rev. L. C. Sparks conducting the services. Interment will be made in Cedar Hill cemetery.

PERRYTON.

The members of the Methodist Sunday school gave a very successful entertainment on Sunday morning.

Mrs. J. F. Seward, who has been visiting her son, Dr. Seward in Springfield, O., for the last two weeks, has returned home, after having had a very pleasant visit.

L. G. Bryan of Adamsville, Ohio, is the guest of his grandparents, and friends at Perryton and Frampton during the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. McMillen and sister, of Zanesville, were the guests of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Miner over Sunday.

Grover Mikesell and sister of New Guilford, were the guests of their uncle, O. M. Mikesell, over Sunday.

J. W. Miner is confined to his home with a severe attack of tonsillitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hoyt and Carl Cullison of Newark, and Dr. Cullison and son of Hanover, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Somerville and family were the guests of Mrs. Cullison, Sr., over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gardner of Reform, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Freese Friday.

The Misses Glenn Fairall and Gertrude Mikesell are visiting friends near Reform.

Miss Nettie Cullison is visiting in Newark this week.

Professor Schaefer is spending his vacation with friends in West Carlisle.

Professor Mikesell is spending his holiday vacation with friends in New Guilford.

Miss Emily Bliss, was removed to Newark in an ambulance and taken to the home of her brother on Thursday.

Rev. I. G. Tedrick attended a ministerial meeting at Zanesville.

Miss Vernie Waffle, who is teaching in Hanover, is spending her vacation at home.

Miss Teagarden of the primary schools, gave her pupils a treat on Friday.

Fred Helman of Columbus, is spending a few days at his home here.

Mr. Frampton and family of Frampton, O., spent Christmas with his parents at Perryton.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Mikesell and son spent Christmas with Harvey Stradley.

Jesse Wilson of New Guilford, was the guest of his sister, Mrs. John E. Sparg, Sunday.

Remember the Murray Comedy company is at the Auditorium all this week.

APPLETON EVENTS

TWO WEDDINGS OF WELL KNOWN
YOUNG PEOPLE.

Augustus Dixon Died After Long Illness—Big Crowd at School Contest—The Winners.

Appleton, O., Dec. 28.—Mr. Ira Stout and Miss Hattie Brown, both of this place, were united in marriage Christmas at the F. B. parsonage Concord, by Rev. Mr. Fulton. Mr. Stout is a son of Dora Stout, east of town, and Miss Hattie is a daughter of M. L. Brown, south of town. Also Mr. Frank Galbraith and Miss Laura Watson were married the same day and same place and by the same minister. Mr. Galbraith is a son of Rev. Mr. Galbraith of the Ohio Conference and Miss Laura is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer S. Watson, near Liberty church. All are highly respected young people and their many friends extend congratulations through the columns of the Advocate.

Mr. Augustus Dixon died at his home east of town last Friday night about 8 o'clock, after a long illness. Funeral services were held Sunday at 11 o'clock at Wesley chapel, conducted by Rev. Mr. Long of Centerburg, and interment was made in the Paterson cemetery by M. L. Emerson. He was born in Burlington township in the year 1831, and in the year 1859 was married to Miss Catherine Lambert, daughter of Jacob and Massa Lambert, with whom he lived happily till death severed the relation. He was one of a family of ten children, who with his parents, James and Sallie Dixon, have all preceded him to the spirit world, excepting the youngest brother, Archibald, who with the companion and a large circle of friends is left to mourn the loss of a faithful and devoted husband, a loving brother and an honest and good neighbor, whose motto always was to do as he would wish to be done by.

Uncle Leroy Butt continues very poorly.

Miss Emma Burkett is spending vacation at home with her mother, near Centerburg.

In spite of the bad weather Friday night, a large crowd attended the contest and everything passed off very nicely. The contestants all did well from start to finish and much credit is due their instructors for the interest manifested. The result of the contest was as follows, taking 1500 points as perfect: High school—Fawn Vanfossen 1334, Emma Burkett 1329, Alpha Shafer 1323; Township—Mary Peters 1325, Wm. Davis 1246, Pearl Hall 1329, Harold Barick 1409, Esther E. Hatch 1335, Luree Crouse 1429, Frank Stout 1291, Clay Stockberger 1412, Susie Hatfield 1376, Jennie Runnels 1386, Orville Alberry 1299, Pearl Smith 1339, Prize Winners—Township: First, Luree Crouse; second, Clay Stockberger; third, Harold Barick. High school: First, Alpha Shafer; second, Fawn Vanfossen; third, Emma Burkett. Mention deserves to be made of the music, which was furnished by the Hatfield orchestra. It was fine. The receipts of the evening were $17.40; expenses $18.15.

There will be two weeks vacation instead of one at the Appleton schools.

Receipts at the oryster supper Friday night amounted to $16.50.

Mr. Leroy Kattie of Sunbury, spent Christmas at his mother's home, Miss Iva Shipley of Newark with her parents, Messrs. A. C. Stinson, wife and son Earl of Johnstown, E. H. Runnels and family of this place with L. M. Shipley.

The reunion of the Fry family was held at the home of Derilus Hatch.

Those present were Mr. J. D. Fry and family, Utica R. D., J. D. Tewel, wife and daughter Ruth, and Joshua Fry of Utica, Otto Fry and family, Warren Wagner and family, Mr. T. Haynes, Mr. Oren Crow, and Miss Hazel Beckley of Newark and A. M. Hes.

An Emergency Medicine.

For sprains, bruises, burns, scalds and similar injuries, there is nothing so good as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It soothes the wound and not only gives instant relief from pain, but causes the parts to heal in about one-third the time required by the usual treatment. As it is an antiseptic all danger from blood poisoning is avoided. Sold by all druggists.

TELEPHONE EXCHANGE

Still Growing and the Company Offers a Small Amount of Preferred
Stock at Par.

The Newark Independent Telephone exchange is still growing. In the last two months 122 'phones have been installed. Within a year the subscriber list has grown from 1700 to over 1500.

There remains a small amount of preferred stock for sale at par. This stock is backed up by a very valuable plant which is earning over $1,600 a month net. Both the common and preferred stocks pay dividends.

The company has more than 75 stockholders among the most conservative business men of Newark. For detailed information as to stockholders' earnings, expenses, etc., call upon Manager Hollander, at the exchange on North Third street. This proposition is worth investigating. Do not delay.

MISS FLORENCE KENAH.

Miss Florence E. Kenah, 434 Maria street, Ottawa, Ont., writes: "A few months ago I caught a severe cold, which settled on my lungs and remained there so persistently that I became alarmed. I took medicine without benefit, until my digestive organs became upset, and my head and back began to ache severely and frequently. I was advised to try Peruna, and although I had little faith I felt so sick that I was ready to try anything. It brought me blessed relief at once, and I felt that I had the right medicine at last. Within three weeks I was completely restored and have enjoyed perfect health since."

WOMEN SHOULD BEWARE OF CONTRACTING CATARRH.

The cold wind and rain, slush and mud of winter are especially conducive to catarrhal derangements. Few women escape.

Upon the first symptoms of catching cold Peruna should be taken. It fortifies the system against colds and catarrh.

Per-na for Colds and Catarrh.

The following interesting letter gives one young woman's experience with Peruna:

Miss Rose Gerbing, a popular society woman of Crown Point, Ind., writes:

"Recently I took a long drive in the country, and being too thinly clad I caught a bad cold which settled on my lungs, and which I could not seem to shake off. I had heard a great deal of Peruna for colds and catarrh and I bought a bottle to try. I am pleased that I did, for it brought speedy relief. It only took about two bottles, and I consider this money well spent."

"You have a firm friend in me, and I only advise its use to my friends."

Don't Neglect Yourself.

1458 Second Street,
Louisville, Ky., April 14, 1906.

I have been weak and sickly for the past four years, caused by irregularity and carelessness regarding the laws of health, but about five months ago my condition became very serious. I had severe backache and suffered a constant dull pain in my head. I spent weary, painful days, and miserable, restless nights. The doctor told me that I must have patience.

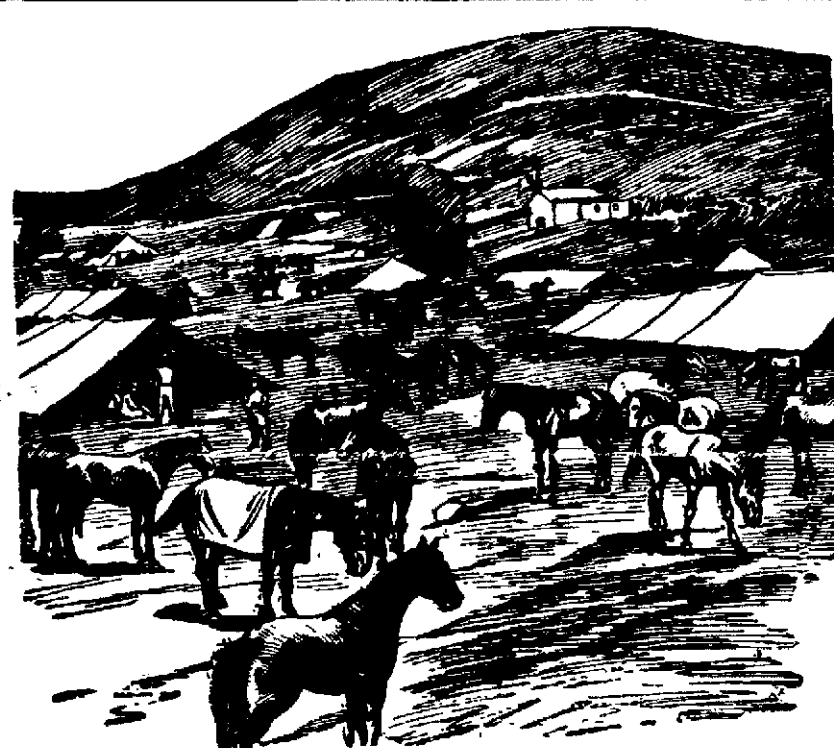

His medicine did not, however, give me even temporary relief and as I had been told of the curative qualities of Wine of Cardui I decided to try it. I found that it relieved me of pain. As my general health improved my other troubles were gradually diminished and after five weeks' use of the Wine of Cardui I was once more a well and happy woman.

WINE OF CARDUI

Wine of Cardui regulates the menstrual flow, banishes headaches, backaches and bearing-down pains. Severe headaches, bearing-down pains, indigestion, loss of appetite and nervousness are symptoms of female weakness and should be given prompt attention. If you are troubled with menstrual irregularities do not let them run on. They will certainly grow into dangerous and chronic troubles. Get a bottle of Wine of Cardui and begin treatment at once.

All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

The Japanese have been so long outside of Port Arthur that many of their camps have taken on the appearance of years of occupancy. The illustration shows a camp about ten miles northwest of the inner range of forts which guard Port Arthur.

Men who are detailed for this special work put them together and construct a bridge over them with no loss of time. The picture shows the pontoon bridge over the Tsatsiso by which the Japanese crossed this stream during the great battle of Liaoyang.

THE STORY OF HER LIFE.

Mrs. Maybrick Is Writing It to Remove Stigma From Her Name.

Mrs. Florence Maybrick, whose fifteen years of confinement in an English prison are generally believed in this country to have been the result of an unjust sentence, has been at work on a history of her own strange and famous case. Since her release from prison and her arrival in America Mrs. Maybrick has been living in seclusion in Brooklyn borough, New York city, at the home of a friend, who stood loyally by her through all her troubles. Mrs. Dr. Helen Densmore, whose death occurred a short time ago.

MRS. FLORENCE MAYBRICK.

It is said that Mrs. Maybrick has received a considerable sum for the serial rights of the story of her life. But she regards the money it may bring her as of little importance compared with the opportunity of presenting to the public the facts of her case as she sees them. She hopes to remove altogether any stigma which may still attach to her name. She also hopes that one result of the book will be the restoration to her of her two children, Gladys and James, who have been brought up by their father's brother and have been taught to believe that she caused their father's death.

Flirtations to the Last.
"It's bad enough to have him executed," sobbed Mrs. Gobbler. "But oh, did you see what he did? A whole minute after his head was off?"

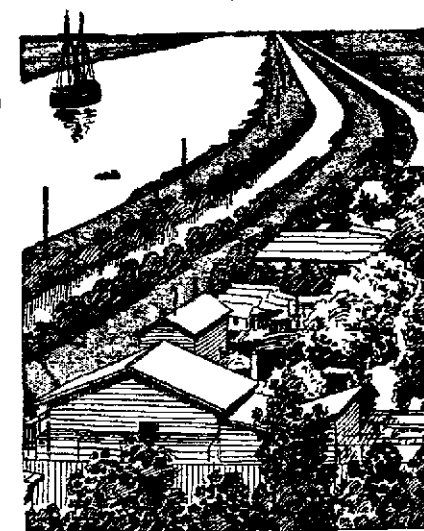

"No," replied Miss Turk sympathetically. "What?"

THE SUEZ CANAL.

Great Highway of Commerce Navigated by Russian Warships.

The famous Suez canal, through which a part of Russia's Baltic fleet has been passing, is one of the greatest engineering works of the age. It is about 100 miles in length and connects Port Said, on the Mediterranean, with Port Thewfik, on the Red sea.

VIEW OF SUEZ CANAL.

The canal is 28 feet deep and 120 feet wide at the bottom, while at the surface it is nearly twice this width.

The great French engineer, Ferdinand de Lesseps, won his chief fame in its construction. It was begun in 1859 and opened for commerce in 1869. The cost up to that time had been over $83,000,000. It has since been enlarged and improved in various ways.

Cornered.
Mother—Why have you taken all of the chairs out of the parlor, dear?

Daughter—Because George is so fearfully bashful. I'm not progressing at all. Now there is nothing left in the room but a tete-a-tete, and he's got to sit near me.—Detroit Free Press.

The Things Necessary.
Motorist—Are all the tools in the tool chest?

Valet—Yes, sir.

Motorist—Are all the cushions and lap robes in the tonneau?

Valet—Yes, sir.

Motorist—Is the tank full of gasoline?

Valet—Yes, sir.

Motorist—Have you brought down all our goggles?

Valet—Yes, sir.

Motorist—Well, run up to my room and bring the roll of bills out of the top bureau drawer so that we will have enough money to pay our fines. Then we shall be ready to start.—Town Topics.

An Up to Date Angel.
She sat beside her nurse on the park bench, swinging her doll by one arm and turning an angelic face confidingly up to the passersby, none of whom passed her without a second glance.

"Isn't she a perfect little seraph?" exclaimed one lady as her eyes dwelt admiringly on the child's golden curls and eyes of heaven's own blue. "But aren't you afraid you'll hurt dolly, dear?" she added, pointing to the battered plaything, whose head had been beaten to a pulp against the bench.

With a sweet smile the seraph replied:

"It's my doll; it ain't up to you to butt in."—New York Press.

Practical Mimicry.
It was a primary class in sense training, and the tots were imitating anything they preferred. When Hazel's turn came she stepped into the center of the ring and carefully wriggled her body from side to side. No one could guess what her actions impersonated, so she was asked to explain.

"Please, Miss Browne, I was a little dog wagging his tail."—Lippincott's Magazine.

Her Failure.
Tess—He says you seem to dislike him.

Jess—Oh, did he say that? Then all my labor amounts to nothing. I tried to make him realize that my dislike was more than mere seeming.—Catholic Standard and Times.

Couldn't Understand It.
"Do you know," said the good man, "that you are on the downward path?"

"Thash queer," the other answered, trying to think. "I can't get m' feet up high 'nough to keep from bumpin' ag'in things."—Chicago Record-Herald.

THE HALL OF FAME.

THE COOKBOOK.

Carrots, beans, onions, turnips, cabbage and cauliflower are improved in flavor by parboiling, draining the water off and putting to cook in fresh water.

By chopping hard boiled eggs very fine and adding three olives, chopped, to every egg, moistening with melted butter and seasoned to taste, a desirable filling for sandwiches is quickly prepared.

Putting ground coffee to steep in cold water the night before will be found to result in economy and richness of flavor for the breakfast beverage. Enough coffee should be used to allow one tablespoonful for every cup and an extra one for the pot.

It is the belief of many that a new political and economic era is at hand in Russia and that constitutional government will come ere long as the result of the movement led by the presidents of zemstvos or local assemblies.

The memorial adopted by these presidents at their recent meeting in St. Petersburg created a deep impression upon the czar when presented to him by representatives of the zemstvos, and the prediction is made that the abolition of the bureaucratic system is not far away. This system, the zemstvos memorial declares, has caused estrangement between the people and

THE COOKBOOK.

Carrots, beans, onions, turnips, cabbage and cauliflower are improved in flavor by parboiling, draining the water off and putting to cook in fresh water.

By chopping hard boiled eggs very fine and adding three olives, chopped, to every egg, moistening with melted butter and seasoned to taste, a desirable filling for sandwiches is quickly prepared.

Putting ground coffee to steep in cold water the night before will be found to result in economy and richness of flavor for the breakfast beverage. Enough coffee should be used to allow one tablespoonful for every cup and an extra one for the pot.

It is the belief of many that a new political and economic era is at hand in Russia and that constitutional government will come ere long as the result of the movement led by the presidents of zemstvos or local assemblies.

The memorial adopted by these presidents at their recent meeting in St. Petersburg created a deep impression upon the czar when presented to him by representatives of the zemstvos, and the prediction is made that the abolition of the bureaucratic system is not far away. SUDDEN CHANGE

Caused Suffering and Inconvenience to Telephone Companies and Trolley People.

The sudden change from summer to winter during Tuesday night was accompanied by almost a blizzard, the high wind blowing blinding snow flurries all day Wednesday.

The telephone companies had some trouble with crossed wires but the service was at no time seriously impaired. The interurban roads experienced several delays between this city and Zanesville, the wind blowing the high tension wire against trees causing short circuits. Between Columbus, Granville and Newark there was no trouble.

XMAS GONE

And a storm is coming, but that does not change the fact that we are left with lots of Toys and useful gifts with which you can supply the wishes of your friends and little ones. Of course, the latter part of the week was unfavorable shopping weather, and you could not buy as you wanted, and many facts have been found out since Xmas by which you now know just what is wanted at your house, or your neighbors, 'cause some got just what the other one wanted and you can now buy just the thing that's needed.

Our stock of Toys will always be complete, but we have many more than we need and you can have them at low prices. You can buy Toys of all kinds this week at sacrifice prices at

NEW WEST END CHURCH

Fine Lot at the Corner of West Main and Maholm Streets Selected for the Erection of a New Methodist Church.

The Methodist Episcopal church of Newark, which has the largest congregation of any protestant church in the city, owing to its rapidly increasing membership, some time ago found it necessary to erect a new church in the East End. During the past two or three years the population of the West End has largely increased, and the Methodists in that part of the city have been without a church.

After several months of untiring effort upon the part of a committee appointed by President McElfresh for that purpose, the Methodist people have finally secured a lot in that part of the city and will erect a church. The lot is near the junction of West Main and Maholm streets, and is so located that it may serve on both streets. The location is good and the lot a beautiful one. That West Newark is in need of more churches there can be no doubt. Its marvelous growth during the past few years has created a demand for church homes for the people who have moved there and expect to make that part of the city their homes.

CONDUCTOR STILL

FILES AFFIDAVITS AGAINST FOUR STREET CAR PASSENGERS,

Charging Disorderly Conduct—One is Accused of Assault and Battery on Cambria Street.

C. O. Still, a conductor on one of the city street cars, filed an affidavit in Mayor Crilly's court Tuesday charging Fred Harlow, James Porterfield, Bert Acen and Jay Blunt with using profane language and disorderly conduct on his car. An additional affidavit was filed against Blunt charging assault and battery. The trouble occurred near Cambria street.

The trial of Jay Blunt, James Porterfield and others for raising a disturbance on a street car on Christmas night was called before Mayor Crilly at 1:30 o'clock. Prosecutor Fitzgibbon represented the state while Charles L. Flory and C. W. Miller appeared for the defendants.

By agreement Blunt was allowed to plead guilty to assault and battery, and was fined $5 and costs, but he stood trial with the other defendants on the charge of disorderly conduct.

The street railway company is prosecuting the case, one of the conductors having filed the affidavits. It is the expressed intention of the company to prosecute the case in order to establish a precedent that will deter others from attempting to interfere with employees in the discharge of their duties.

SUDDEN DEATH

OF MR. ISAIAH Y. COCHRAN AT HIS COUNTRY HOME.

Uncle of Henry C. Cochran Died Wednesday Morning After Doing His Farm Chores.

Isaiah Y. Cochran, brother of the late J. P. Cochran and uncle of Henry C. Cochran, died Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at his home in Union township about six miles west of Newark.

Mr. Cochran who was 78 years of age had not been sick. He ate heartily at breakfast and attended to the farm chores afterward cutting some wood. Then he returned to the house, sat down in a chair and died in a few minutes in his wife's arms.

Besides his widow, one son, W. C. Cochran, and one daughter, Mrs. Anna King, survive. The funeral will be held Friday at 10 o'clock and burial will be made at Cedar Hill. Rev. Mr. McCall of Licking church, will officiate.

FELL FROM BRIDGE

TO THE WATER ABOUT TWENTY-FIVE FEET BELOW.

Civil War Veteran Fell Tuesday Night But B. & O. Brakeman Rescued Mr. Painter.

Mr. Painter, an old veteran of the civil war, who lives in the East End, had a narrow escape from death on Tuesday evening. He was crossing over the Baltimore and Ohio railroad bridge just east of the depot about 6 o'clock, and when he reached the eastern end of the bridge he slipped and fell to the creek below, a distance of 25 or 30 feet. Edward Jones, a brakeman on the local on the Shawnee division, who happened to be near by, heard the splash in the water, and running down the bank to the creek managed to pull the old gentleman out of the water just in time to save his life.

REIGN OF TERROR

RESULTS FROM CONDITIONS AT GOLDFIELD, NEV.

Diphtheria, Smallpox and Pneumonia Raging and Impossible to Get Medicines.

Reno, Neb., Dec. 28.—Frightful conditions prevail at Goldfield, the new mining camp in the southern part of the state. An epidemic of diphtheria, smallpox and pneumonia is raging, and it is impossible to get medicines, food, water and similar necessities in the camp. Another source of great suffering is the scarcity of building material, on account of sixty days embargo on freight at Reno, due to congestion.

Pneumonia is taking men off in a night and no effort is being made to isolate smallpox patients. The supply of coffins is insufficient and many bodies are left unburied for days.

Hundreds remain in the camp sleeping only in thin tents, while the rest into the camp from the outside continues. Unless building material is forthcoming soon, the conditions will become appalling. Hold-ups are of nightly occurrence and a veritable reign of terror is expected the first of the year, when a number of leases will expire, forcing a cessation of operations. Many lease-holders are openly threatening to jump valuable claims whose owners are prepared to defend them with their lives.
